The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The people sit.

The Lessons

First Reading

Acts 3:12-19

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

¹²Peter addressed the people, “You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk?¹³The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. ¹⁴But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, ¹⁵and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. ¹⁶And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

¹⁷“And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. ¹⁸In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. ¹⁹Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out.”

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

ANTIPHON

Brian Williams

The Antiphon is sung first by the cantor, then repeated by all.
The verses are sung by all.

- 1 Answer me when I call, O God, defender of my / cause; *
you set me free when I am hard-pressed;
have mercy on me / and hear my prayer.
- 2 “You mortals, how long will you dishonor my / glory; *
how long will you worship dumb idols
and run / after false gods?” [ANTIPHON]
- 3 Know that the LORD does wonders for the / faithful; *
when I call upon the LORD, / he will hear me.
- 4 Tremble, then, and do not / sin; *
speak to your heart in silence / upon your bed.
- 5 Offer the appointed / sacrifices *
and put your / trust in the LORD. [ANTIPHON]
- 6 Many are saying,
“Oh, that we might see / better times!” *
Lift up the light of your countenance up / on us, O LORD.
- 7 You have put gladness in my / heart, *
more than when grain and wine / and oil increase.
- 8 I lie down in peace; at once I / fall asleep; *
for only you, LORD, make me / dwell in safety. [ANTIPHON]

Second Reading

1 John 3:1-7

A reading from the First letter of John.

¹See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ²Beloved, we are God’s children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. ³And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

⁴Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. ⁵You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. ⁶No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. ⁷Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

The Gospel

Luke 24:36b-48

All stand.Deacon

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

*PeopleGlory to you, Lord Christ.

^{36b}Jesus stood among [the disciples] and said to them, “Peace be with you.” ³⁷They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. ³⁸He said to them, “Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? ³⁹Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.” ⁴⁰And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

⁴¹While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?”

⁴²They gave him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³and he took it and ate in their presence.

⁴⁴Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.” ⁴⁵Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, ⁴⁶and he said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things.”

The Sermon

A moment of silent reflection is observed following the sermon.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever.

Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.

Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we say, Sanctus Spoken at 8 a.m.

The people stand or kneel.

The Celebrant continues

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Celebrant and People

We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Celebrant continues

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

Remember our bishops, Michael and Rob, and all who minister in your Church.

Remember all your people, and those who seek your truth.

Remember _____.

Remember all who have died in the peace of Christ, including _____, and those whose faith is known to you alone; bring them into the place of eternal joy and light.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with the Blessed Virgin Mary, with patriarchs, matriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. AMEN

The Lord's Prayer

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Youth to Church of the Common Ground Today

St. Martin's middle and high school youth are attending Church of the Common Ground with Molly and youth leaders today. They will meet at 10:00 a.m. in the Food Pantry to prepare lunches to share with CCG parishioners. They depart from the church at 11:00 a.m., but the CCG service begins at 1:00 p.m. in Woodruff Park downtown and all are welcome to join.

Adult Formation & Youth Parents' Presentation

April 14, 10:00 a.m. & 2:00 p.m.

The Episcopal Diocese of Atlanta is dedicated to fighting human trafficking in North and Middle Georgia and the Diocesan Commission on Human Trafficking is working to educate all members of our Diocese in the awareness and prevention of Human Trafficking. At 10:00 a.m. in Gable Hall, Deacon Victoria and Ron Bagwell, who serve on the Commission, will present the work they do during Adult Formation. At 2:00 p.m., Deacon Victoria and Ron Bagwell will meet with the parents of our youth to view a youth-appropriate PowerPoint presentation on Human Trafficking and to answer any questions or concerns prior to our youth group viewing on April 21.

Acolyte Luncheon

April 21, 12:30 p.m.

On April 21 after the 11:00 a.m. service all acolytes and their families are welcome to a luncheon thanking our acolytes for their service this year, and honoring our senior scholarship recipient. Speak with Judi Oakley (gableoak06@comcast.net) if you have any questions.

Youth Sunday

April 28, 11:00 a.m.

We will be celebrating the youth of St. Martin's and graduating seniors on April 28th. Please plan to come and worship and celebrate with us.

SAGES - Camp Kudzu Presentation

May 3, 10:00 a.m.

Camp Kudzu's mission is that every child with diabetes deserves a chance to grow, learn, and live a healthy life. Kat Shreve, Camp Kudzu's Associate Executive Director, will speak at our next SAGES gathering. Join us and bring friends. Contact Dottie Palmer (soalady1@gmail.com) for more information.

For 30 years, St. Martin’s has worked with Atlanta Habitat to empower families through homeownership. In 2024, we will partner with seven other area churches in the Summer Faith Build. This year we are helping Jemario Harris build a home for he and his son, Jahmir. In Jemario’s words, this new home “will mean the world to me and my son.”

Please consider supporting St. Martin’s construction of the Harris’ home by donating toward construction costs, assisting with the lunch for one of the build days, and/or volunteering on-site (build days: May 11 thru July 13)...

Donate

St. Martin’s is contributing $7,500 toward the construction of Jemario’s home. Please contribute online via the St. Martin’s website and select Habitat from the Fund drop-down menu.

Support the Lunch

Sign up below to assist St. Monica’s Guild as they collect food to feed 50 volunteers at the build site on May 18 or contact Leslie Uddin (leslieuddin@yahoo.com) or Susan Breunig (sbbreunig@gmail.com).

Volunteer

Sign up to volunteer for one or more of the build days via Atlanta Habitat’s Volunteer Hub. You must register at least one-week in advance. For questions, contact Tim Kelly (tj.kelly@gmail.com).

Additional Notes About Volunteering: Each partner church participating in the Summer Faith Build is guaranteed three volunteer slots each week. The Volunteer Hub may show more slots available as there are a couple of extra slots. If no slots are available for a week when you want to volunteer, join the waitlist. One week out, you can no longer sign up for a given Saturday and any church with unfilled slots will have their slots filled by individuals on the waitlist. To that end, it is also essential that if your plans change, and you cannot volunteer, please CANCEL your sign-up so that it may be filled by someone else. Volunteers must be at least 16 years old and parents of 16 and 17 year-olds will need to complete a waiver. Day 1 of the build begins at the Atlanta Habitat warehouse; Days 2-8 begin at 477 Village Creek Drive SE Atlanta, GA 30354.
