The Holy Eucharist: Rite One
The Second Sunday after the Epiphany
Martin Luther King Sunday
January 20, 2019

St. Martin in the Fields Episcopal Church and School

3110 Ashford Dunwoody Road, Atlanta, GA 30319

Church: 404.261.4292 | stmartins.org

School: 404.237.4260 | stmartinschool.org

We welcome you to St. Martin in the Fields. We are a parish grounded in the rich Episcopal tradition of sacramental worship. All are invited to receive the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. If you do not wish to receive communion, you may come forward to the chancel rail for a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest. If you are unable to come to the chancel rail at communion and would like the sacrament brought to you in your pew, please let an usher know.

All are welcome here. Please tell us more about yourself by filling out a pew card and handing it to a greeter, usher, or clergy person as you leave. We hope that you will experience the presence of God's Holy Spirit with us in today's worship.

Upon entering, you are invited to enter this place in silence, saving your greetings and conversations for the time after worship. In the words of Fr. Douglas Maris: "Silence is a prerequisite to prayer. Only when distractions are eliminated can the heart express itself unencumbered."

- The Nursery is for children ages 6 months to 4 years. It is located in Nicholson Hall, which is through the door to the left of the altar, and opens at 9 am. Parents are welcome to bring their little ones to our friendly nursery suite and outdoor play areas supervised by Charlotte Smith and staffed by professionals, parents, and youth volunteers.
 - Children's Chapel is for those who are ages 3-7 and is held during the 10:30 am worship service downstairs in Pierce Hall. At the beginning of the service, children in this age group may exit (with or without a parent) on the left side of the church to sing, pray and hear the Gospel story in Children's Chapel. The children may return at The Peace to share Eucharist with their families.
 - Sacred Spaces is for rising 2nd through 5th graders and is held in the Parlor during the 10:30 am service. It focuses on the message that the Gospel of the week holds for them. Children in this age group may exit at the back of the church during the processional hymn and return during The Peace to share the Eucharist with their families.
 - Special Notice: On the 1st Sunday of every month, children will remain in church to worship with their parents, (10:30 am service). While the nursery remains open, Children's Chapel and Sacred Spaces are not.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And with thy spirit.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ is the light of the world: Grant that thy people, illumined by thy Word and Sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshiped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the Holy Spirit liveth and reigneth, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Martin Luther King Day

Almighty God, by the hand of Moses your servant you led your people out of slavery, and made them free at last: Grant that your Church, following the example of your prophet Martin Luther King, may resist oppression in the name of your love, and may secure for all your children the blessed liberty of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson

Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
until her vindication shines out like the dawn,
and her salvation like a burning torch.
The nations shall see your vindication,
and all the kings your glory;
and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will give.
You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD,
and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.
You shall no more be termed Forsaken,
and your land shall no more be termed Desolate;
but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her,
and your land Married;
for the LORD delights in you,
and your land shall be married.
For as a young man marries a young woman,
so shall your builder marry you,
and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
so shall your God rejoice over you.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Response

Psalm 36:5-10

- 5 Your love, O LORD, reaches to the heavens, *
and your faithfulness to the clouds.
6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains, your justice like the great deep; *
you save both man and beast, O LORD.
7 How priceless is your love, O God! *
your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings.
8 They feast upon the abundance of your house; *
you give them drink from the river of your delights.
9 For with you is the well of life, *
and in your light we see light.
10 Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, *
and your favor to those who are true of heart.

The Second Lesson

1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

The Gospel

John 2:1-11

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory be to thee, O Christ.

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise be to thee, O Christ.

The Sermon

A period of silence is kept.

The Rev. Stefanie Taylor

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

BCP p. 328

The Prayer of Discernment

In unison, at the conclusion

Almighty God, source of all wisdom and understanding, we ask for your guidance in discerning your will as the Nominating Committee and Vestry choose a new rector for St. Martin's. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession of Sin

BCP p. 331

Minister and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against thee
in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved thee with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in thy will,
and walk in thy ways,
to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

The Absolution

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND COMING EVENTS

Sunday Morning Christian Formation for Adults

From Sunday to Monday has started back. Please join us in Gable Hall at 9:30 am

January 20- The Rev. Amy Dills-Moore, "Lessons in Prayer from Teresa of Avila"

January 27- Annual Parish Meeting at 9 am

February 3- Elizabeth Arnold, "Introduction to the Gospel of Luke"

A note about this Sunday, January 20: Mother Amy traveled last fall with the Diocese of Atlanta on a study pilgrimage to Avila Spain, the home of Christian saint and doctor of the church Teresa of Avila. On that trip she encountered a saint whose voice speaking from the 16th century has lessons to teach us today about the life of prayer. Teresa believed prayer is a journey of union in love with Christ and described prayer as friendship with God, but she was also quite honest about the challenges of maintaining a committed life of prayer. Mother Amy will lead our discussion of Lessons in Prayer from Saint Teresa of Avila.

A Note about Bob Farrow, Our New Seminarian

Dear People of St. Martin's,

My apologies to those of you who were confused by the announcement last week of your new seminarian's arrival. If you read your Messenger, you were greeted with a nice photo of Bob along with a letter he wrote introducing himself to you. I had intended to write a brief paragraph introducing Bob to you that would have made his role clear. But I neglected to do that. Therefore, some of you misunderstood and thought he might be the new rector! This gives me the opportunity to tell you a bit more about his role at St. Martin's.

Officially, he is St. Martin's seminarian for this spring semester. In that role, he will assist the clergy around the parish with some pastoral ministry and do other work as assigned by the clergy. You will see him at the altar every Sunday at the 10:30 am service and in rotation at the 8 am and 5:30 pm service. Since he has not yet been through the discernment process, he's not ordained and therefore cannot celebrate the Eucharist or baptize people. (He is not a priest.) However, there is much work that he can do around the church. Now you have a clearer idea of what he'll be up to very soon.

Grace and peace,
Allan+

Committee Recaps Needed for the 2018 Annual Parish Report

An electronic copy of the 2017 Annual Report was sent via email to the leadership of many of our church organizations. If you are in a leadership position and did not receive an email from Pam Melton, please let her know so that she can send you last year's and you can make edits/updates for 2018. The goal is to streamline the parish report, giving the congregation the information needed while also being good stewards of our resources. Please forward your edits/update ASAP to Pam Melton, pmelton@stmartins.org or 404.228.0752.

Living Contemplatively: Women's Spirituality Group Resumes on January 24

The group offers women sacred space to gather each Thursday at 10 am to explore a more contemplative approach to being in the world and ways of being more present to God's love in our lives. We are reading together Enduring Grace: Living Portraits of Seven Women Mystics by Carol Lee Flinders. We will resume on January 24 and discuss Catherine of Genoa. Contact Mother Amy at adillsmoore@stmartins.org if you have questions or would like more information.

SAGES February Gathering, Mercedes Benz Complex Tour

We have arranged a tour of the Mercedes-Benz complex on Thursday, February 21 at 9:45 am. It will last about an hour and a half. Lunch plans are still being finalized. The cost of the tour is $15. Arrangements have been made for a special parking fee of $8 per car. However, we will need a commitment from you as soon as possible because we have had to pay half of the anticipated cost in advance to guarantee the reservation. Thirty spots have been reserved and we need to get at least that many reservations. Please RSVP to Dottie Palmer at 404.783.0499 or email her at SOALady1@gmail.com.

Spring Rite 13 Ceremony- February 24

The Rite 13 Liturgy is a rite of passage where we recognize the blessing of God's gift of man or womanhood. A Rite 13 Service will be held at St. Martin's on Sunday, February 24. If your youth has recently celebrated, or is soon to celebrate, his or her 13th birthday, and you would like them to participate in the liturgy, please email Jessica Beverstein (jbeverstein@stmartins.org) by Friday, February 1, and provide your child's full name as well as the name they go by.

Aside from the service on February 24, there will be a Rite 13 lunch and rehearsal for participants and their families beginning at 11:30 am on Sunday, February 10. In addition to the Sunday time commitments on February 10 and February 24, participation in this event entails the following:

1. Each parent/set of parents will need to prepare a toast/speech in honor of your child to be given at the lunch on the February 10.
2. All parents need to send Jessica a bio of their child that will be put in the bulletin. The Bio needs to be sent no later than Friday, February 15.
3. The youth will each need to make a poster about themselves to share with the church on February 24. (This will be like an autobiography board: likes, dislikes, hobbies, school, family, friends, etc.)

If you have any questions, please contact Jessica at jbeverstein@stmartins.org.
