The mission of St. Martin's is to follow Christ and lead others to Him.

The Holy Eucharist: Rite I

The Twenty-first Sunday after Pentecost

October 14, 2018 | 8am & 5:30pm

St. Martin in the Fields Episcopal Church and School

3110 Ashford Dunwoody Road, Atlanta, GA 30319

Church: 404.261.4292 | stmartins.org

School: 404.237.4260 | stmartinschool.org

We welcome you to St. Martin in the Fields. We are a parish grounded in the rich Episcopal tradition of sacramental worship. All are invited to receive the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. If you do not wish to receive communion, you may come forward to the chancel rail for a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest. If you are unable to come to the chancel rail at communion and would like the sacrament brought to you in your pew, please let an usher know.

All are welcome here. Please tell us more about yourself by filling out a pew card and handing it to a greeter, usher, or clergy person as you leave. We hope that you will experience the presence of God's Holy Spirit with us in today's worship.

• The Nursery is for children ages 6 months to 4 years. It is located in Nicholson Hall, which is through the door to the left of the altar, and opens at 9am. Parents are welcome to bring their little ones to our friendly nursery suite and outdoor play areas supervised by Charlotte Smith and staffed by professionals, parents, and youth volunteers.

• Children's Chapel is for those who are ages 3-7 and is held during the 10:30am worship service downstairs in Pierce Hall. At the beginning of the service, children in this age group may exit (with or without a parent) on the left side of the church to sing, pray and hear the Gospel story in Children's Chapel. They may return at The Peace to share Eucharist with their families.

• Sacred Spaces is for rising 2nd through 5th graders and is held in the Parlor during the 10:30am service. It focuses on the message that the Gospel of the week holds for them. Children in this age group may exit at the back of the church during the processional hymn and return during The Peace to share the Eucharist with their families.

Special Notice: On the first Sunday of every month, children will remain in church to worship with their parents. While the nursery remains open, Children's Chapel and Sacred Spaces are not.

The First Lesson

Job 23:1-9, 16-17

Job said:

"Today also my complaint is bitter;
his hand is heavy despite my groaning.
Oh, that I knew where I might find him,
that I might come even to his dwelling!
I would lay my case before him,
and fill my mouth with arguments.

I would learn what he would answer me,
and understand what he would say to me.
Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?
No; but he would give heed to me.
There an upright person could reason with him,
and I should be acquitted forever by my judge.
"If I go forward, he is not there;
or backward, I cannot perceive him;
on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him;
I turn to the right, but I cannot see him.
God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me;
If only I could vanish in darkness,
and thick darkness would cover my face!"

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

- 1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? *
and are so far from my cry
and from the words of my distress?
- 2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; *
by night as well, but I find no rest.
- 3 Yet you are the Holy One, *
enthroned upon the praises of Israel.
- 4 Our forefathers put their trust in you; *
they trusted, and you delivered them.
- 5 They cried out to you and were delivered; *
they trusted in you and were not put to shame.
- 6 But as for me, I am a worm and no man, *
scorned by all and despised by the people.
- 7 All who see me laugh me to scorn; *
they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying,
- 8 "He trusted in the LORD; let him deliver him; *
let him rescue him, if he delights in him."
- 9 Yet you are he who took me out of the womb, *
and kept me safe upon my mother's breast.

Psalm 22:1-15

- 10 I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; *
you were my God when I was still in my mother's womb.
- 11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near, *
and there is none to help.
- 12 Many young bulls encircle me; *
strong bulls of Bashan surround me.
- 13 They open wide their jaws at me, *
like a ravening and a roaring lion.
- 14 I am poured out like water;
all my bones are out of joint; *
my heart within my breast is melting wax.
- 15 My mouth is dried out like a pot-sherd;
my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; *
and you have laid me in the dust of the grave.

The Second Lesson

Hebrews 4:12-16

The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

The Word of the Lord.

The Gospel

Mark 10:17-31

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People: Glory be to thee, O Christ.

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: ‘You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.’” He said to him, “Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.” Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!” And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” They were greatly astounded and said to one another, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.”

Peter began to say to him, “Look, we have left everything and followed you.” Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Newell Graham

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,

begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

BCP p. 328

The Confession of Sin

p. 331

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against thee
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved thee with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in thy will,
and walk in thy ways,
to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

The Absolution

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

STEWARDSHIP 2019

WHAT DOES ST. MARTIN'S MEAN TO ME? SHARING OUR STORIES

The Benefits of Being on Both Sides of the Aisle by Vince Vitti

Thank you, Lori Hart for giving me the inspiration and content to write this letter to our church community.

Several weeks ago, Lori Hart kicked-off our 2019 Stewardship Campaign with a great speech that included a reference to market norms vs. social norms. Usually, when I am asked to describe my life at St. Martin in the Fields, I tend to lean toward the social norms. Those social norms include a rich and spiritual-filled life, an opportunity to raise my children in a loving Christian environment at both church and school, learning how to serve others through various in-reach and out-reach programs, and strengthening my relationship with Jesus Christ. However, for the last three years, I have witnessed the market norms of our church and school and I am more energized, passionate and committed than I have ever been.

It has been a roller-coaster ride ever since Father McCard resigned in August of 2017. Not only did we find ourselves looking for a new rector, but we were also challenged with calling a new associate rector and several staff members. At the same time, we were working through the logistics with the school to help rebuild Claiborne Hall. Let's add the church rebranding campaign, parish profile development, and selection of a nominating committee to the mix and you have perfect storm or as I like to describe it, Jesus was trying to get our attention.

This is where the intersection of market norms and social norms collided for me. I witnessed the people of St. Martin in the Fields Church and St. Martin's Episcopal School come together to support each other. I had the honor and privilege of working with one of the best vestry's ever assembled at St. Martin's and with the head of school and board of trustees – all of whom showed great respect and gratitude for what the church brings to the community. Most of all, I am grateful for our parishioners who showed patience and understanding throughout the entire process.

I have seen both sides of church life and I am pleased to report that love exists on both sides of the aisle and our table is open to everyone (thank you Father Allan for teaching me this concept.) This community is means everything to me and I am ready to complete the task that has been assigned to me because I love you. That is what St. Martin in the Fields Church and School mean to me. And by the way, Jesus is not done with us!

Love,
Vince.

We would love to hear your stories too. Please contact Melinda Mischik if interested in sharing your story at melindamischik@gmail.com.

144 Envelopes

144 envelopes is a fundraising project in which the J2A group is hoping all of St. Martin's can participate. The 144 envelope board displayed is for all to prayerfully discern which envelope(s) they can take home to fill with a donation in the allotted amount of $1-$144. In order to assist the J2A group on their pilgrimage, the allotted cost of the trip is greatly reduced based upon the amount of funds raised by the crew. Our goal is to fill all the envelopes this fall before Christmas.
